FREIGHT RATES TO BE DOUBLED

Discontinuance of Free Delivery to Work Additional Hardship Is Charge.

AN INCREASE IS SHOWN

Express Service and Railroad Rates Would Be More Than Under Present System.

A double addition of costs to Washington merchants and other patrons of the Pennsylvania and Baltimore and Ohio Railroad companies would be made by the discontinuance of the companies' free local freight delivery service March 1, of which the companies have filed notification with the Interstate Commerce Commission. It is asserted by persons opposed to the discontinuance.

Not only would the free delivery be superseded by an express service for which consignees of freight would have to pay, but, indirectly, the rail rates for delivery of the freight, if a. b. Washington, would be increased, it is contended.

Where a first-class rate from New York to Washington now is 27 cents, including free local delivery, it is pointed out, the railroad company gets 22.5 cents, and the local express company 4.5 cents. On second-class rate of 21 cents, the railroad gets 22.5, the local express, 4.5; third-class rate of 16 cents, the railroad gets 14, the local express, 2 cents.

Similarly, on rates from Philadelphia to Washington, of 25 cents on first-class freight, the railroad gets 22.5, and the local express 4.5; second-class rate of 21, the railroad gets 22.5 and the local express, 4.5; third-class rate of 16, the railroad gets 14 and the local express, 2 cents.

From New Jersey, Delaware, and New England points on freight to Washington from which the free local delivery is maintained by the Pennsylvania and the Baltimore and Ohio, proportionate divisions of the rates are made. If the free local delivery is discontinued, it is contended, the present rates named by the railroads will be maintained for delivery of freight (f. o. b. Washington, no deduction being made to compensate for the local express charges included in the present rates. Additionally, the Washington consignees of freight will not be able to pay for local delivery at the rates at which the railroad companies now pay for it. No package, for example, will be taken by the local express companies for less than 25 cents.

A large part of the freight received by local merchants of the first-class and in packages of less than a hundred-weight. Where such packages are now delivered for a few cents, the charges for local delivery, after the free delivery is discontinued, would be 25 cents or more, with no allowance made for the 45 cents now included in the gross rate named by the railroads.

LEITER FILES SUIT AGAINST BROKER

Gas Company Head Seeks to Obtain Stock, in Default of Payment of $260,000 Loan.

Joseph Leiter yesterday filed suit against Thomas L. Hume, alleging that on January 12, 1912, Hume applied to the plaintiff for a loan of $200,000 for one year at 4 1/2 per cent interest, repayable within one year from date of loan. The plaintiff alleges that Hume offered to deposit with him 2,000 shares of the stock of the Washington Gaslight Company as collateral security for the payment of the loan.

Leiter alleges that Hume defaulted in the payment of the loan when it was due, and refused to pay, notwithstanding the fact that demand for payment was made on him. The plaintiff asks the court to decree the foreclosure of his lien on 2,000 shares of stock of the Washington Gaslight Company, and subject the same to the payment and indebtedness due by the defendant to the plaintiff, and that a trustee be appointed to make sale of the stock.

GENERALS' WIDOWS PENSIONED.

Mrs. John Porter and Mrs. Mary MacArthur Voted Allowances.

The Senate yesterday passed a bill giving Mrs. John Porter, widow of Gen. John Porter, who was dismissed from the army in 1902, a pension of $9 a month. Maj. Gen. Porter was dismissed following the annihilation of the troops under his command at the second battle of Bull Run. He was restored in 1912. He also was a veteran of the Mexican war.

The Senate Committee on Pensions yesterday authorized a favorable report on a bill to pay Mrs. Mary MacArthur, widow of Maj. Gen. MacArthur, a pension at the rate of $25 a month. Mrs. MacArthur's home is in Wisconsin. Senator Stephens has a bill pending to pay her $2,000 a year, and Senator La Follette one to pay her $100 a month. Following the customary practice, however, the Senate Pensions Committee voted her $25 a month.

GRAND JURY HOLDS BEAN.

Extends a
Cheering Welcome
With Electric Light
Your Home Will Look Its Best

The wiring can easily be installed, without dirt or annoyance, and with no damage to your wall or ceiling decorations. With electric light in use the decorations of your home will last about two or three times as long as with open-flame illuminants.

No home is really modern unless it is equipped for electric light. No home is a genuinely healthful place in which to live unless electric light is available.

Use Electric Light And You Use the Best
